

$~33

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ W.P.(C) 5406/2017 & C.M. Nos.22776/2017, 22777/2017 & 15456/2018

DELHI TRANSPORT CORPORATION Petitioner

Through Ms.Avnish Ahlawat, Adv. with Ms.Sakshi Shairwal, Adv.

versus

RAM KISHAN SHARMA Respondent

Through Mr.Mohammad Sajid, Adv.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIPIN SANGHI

HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE REKHA PALLI

ORDER

% 23.05.2019

The respondent has filed an affidavit. We have perused the same. It is highly deficient and does not deal with the issues that we had raised in our last order. Ms.Ahlawat, learned counsel for the petitioner has produced from the official record a copy of the official noting which shows the manner of computation of the provident fund amount, including the employer share and the employee share which was payable to the respondent. The same has been worked out as Rs.1,54,250.90/- and the said office noting shows that the amount was paid vide cheque no.214475 dated 22.11.1993 and that it was received by the respondent/employee on 30.11.1993.

Let the aforesaid extract of the file notings, be placed on record along with an affidavit by the petitioner within a week. The respondent is directed to file an affidavit clearly stating whether the said cheque has been received and encashed by the respondent and the amount credited to his account. The respondent shall file its reply within three weeks after the filing of the affidavit by the petitioner.

List on 23.07.2019.

VIPIN SANGHI, J

REKHA PALLI, J

MAY 23, 2019/aa