CRL.M.A. 3850/2016

1. The present application has been moved for incorporating the additional grounds in the appeal.
2. Learned standing counsel submits that grounds D to L are required to be added on the grounds of the appeal.
3. Learned counsel for the respondent has opposed the application on the ground that the application has been filed at a much belated stage.
4. The leave to appeal is yet to be granted. I consider that no prejudice will be caused to the respondent if the present application is allowed. Hence, the application is allowed to take the additional grounds of appeal while arguing the leave to appeal application.

5. In view of the above, the present application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.A. 827/2017

6. The present application has been moved for seeking permission to destroy the case property and representative samples, as per procedure prescribed.
7. Learned standing counsel submits that the case property and representative samples are no longer required and the same may be allowed to be destroyed as per procedure prescribed.
8. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has fairly submitted that case property and representative samples may be allowed to be destroyed.
9. In view of the submissions, the application is allowed and the application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.A. 826/2017

10. Learned standing counsel states that the even now the RBI has extending/exchanging the currency notes in the exceptional circumstances. Learned standing counsel seeks time to place relevant notification on the record.
11. List on 25.09.2024.
