The service report is awaited. While awaiting the same, issue fresh notice to the respondent, returnable on 26.07.2017.

Crl.L.P. NO. 679/2015

The trunk which contains the contraband and a packet containing the currency notes has been produced and de-sealed in Court. The packet containing the currency notes has been opened which is found to contain a wallet having two notes of Rs. 1000/- denomination, two notes of Rs. 100/- denomination, two notes of Rs. 10/- denomination and one note of Rs. 5/- denomination, totalling up Rs. 2,225/-. The two currency notes of Rs. 1000/- denomination have been delivered to Mr. Rakesh Kumar, Intelligence Officer/Custodian, Commissioner of Customs, who is present in Court in person, in the presence of counsel for the petitioner, for depositing with the Reserve Bank of India, in the name of Commissioner of Customs. The deposit slip shall be placed on record. The remaining currency notes has been placed back in the wallet and the envelop containing them be re-sealed. The orders with regard to the disposal of the contraband substances shall be passed after service of notice to the respondent.

The Court Master is directed to ensure that the trunk is re-sealed today itself and be delivered to Mr. Rakesh Kumar, Intelligence Officer/Custodian, Commissioner of Customs, against acknowledgement.

Let the matter be placed before the Assistant Registrar today itself for recording of proceedings with regard to re-sealing of the trunk and packet containing the wallet with the currency notes as well as the contraband articles.

List on 26.07.2017.
