ORDER
% 10.07.2017

Crl.M. (Bail) 1110/2017 (suspension of sentence)

Learned Special Public Prosecutor does not oppose the application for suspension of sentence of the appellant during the pendency of the appeal and submits that the bail may be extended and appeal be fixed for final hearing. Vide order dated 22nd May, 2017 learned Special Judge, CBI, has admitted the appellant/convict for bail under Section 389 Cr.P.C. to enable him to file an appeal for a period of 60 days. There are arguable points in appeal. In the facts and circumstances of the case, it is directed that during the pendency of the appeal, the substantive sentence of imprisonment awarded to the convict/appellant shall remain suspended on appellant furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.1 lac with one surety in the like amount. The appellant shall not leave the country without prior intimation to the learned Special Judge, CBI. The appellant shall file the receipt of fine before the learned Special Judge, CBI and copy thereof on record of this court.
