ORDER

24.03.2025

Heard Mr. P.C.R. Medhi, learned counsel for the petitioner. Also heard Mr. R. Dubey, learned Standing Counsel, AAI.

It is submitted by Mr. R. Dubey, learned counsel appearing for the Airport Authority that a writ appeal has been preferred by respondent No.9 in WP(C) No. 675 of 2021. However, since there is a delay an Interlocutory Application has also been filed seeking condonation of the delay. It is also submitted that the matter is fixed on 01.04.2025 and there is a every likelihood of the matter being called up and the some order being passed in the said appeal.

Mr. R. Dubey, therefore submits that perhaps the matter can be called up after 01.04.2025. He also submits that so far as the Airport Authority has concerned they have submitted all necessary details to the Office of the Director General of Civil Aviation in compliance with the directions contained in the order dated 25.04.2023 passed in WP(C) No.675/2021.

Mr. P.C. Roy Medhi, on the other hand does not dispute the submissions that a writ appeal has been filed arising out of the judgment dated 25.04.2023 passed in WP(C) No.675/2021. He submits that the matter be called up immediately after 01.04.2025.

Meanwhile, Mr. R. Dubey will furnish the name of the officer who is currently holding office as the Regional Executive Director (ER) AAI, NSCBI Airport, Kolkata. Once, the name is furnished the learned counsel will take the necessary steps to incorporate the same in the contempt petition.

List this matter again on 02.04.2025 and the learned counsel for the airport authority will appraise the Court on the status of the writ appeal along with Interlocutory Application stated to have been filed by the Employees Provident Fund and Organization (respondent No.9).

List accordingly.
