It appears from the records that the writ petition was filed in the year 2017 but till date, the State respondents have not even care to file any affidavit-in-opposition. It is further surprising to take note of that both the counsel for the petitioner as well as the counsel for the respondents seem to have been oblivious about the matter.

2. Taking into account that no interest has been shown in the matter by both the counsel for the petitioner as well as the counsel for the respondents, let this matter be listed in its usual course for hearing in the Part-II List.
