ORDER

Date : 06.01.2026

Heard Mr. H. Rahman, learned counsel for the petitioner. Also heard Mr. S. M. T. Chistie, learned counsel for the respondent nos. 1, 2 & 3.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has already got the relief that was sought for. Therefore, the contempt petition has become infructuous.

The learned counsel for the respondent has also stated that the relief sought for in the connected writ petition has already been received by the petitioner and therefore, nothing survives in the instant contempt petition.

In view of the aforesaid submission made, the instant contempt petition is closed and disposed of.
