ORDER

18.03.2026

Heard Mr. S. Bora learned counsel for the petitioner.

Issue Notice Returnable four weeks.

Ms. B. Sharma, learned CGC appears on behalf of all the respondents, therefore notices are waived.

However, extra copies be furnished within a period of 1 week from today.

The case projected before the Court by the petitioner that he was discharged from service in the year 1993. However, no order of discharge was communicated, nor was supplied to him. His representation since the year 1996 had remained pending, he was not allowed to join nor any proceedings were initiated or information regarding any proceeding initiated against him prior to his discharge was communicated to him.

Having waited for all these years and received no response to the communications from the authorities, the petitioner had approach this Court.

Although notices issued in the matter, the fact remains that the writ petitioner approached this Court after about 30 years. Therefore, the question of maintainability of the petition is kept open to be decided at the time of Admission.

Meanwhile, the learned respondents will complete their instructions and file necessary affidavit if so advised.

List this matter again after 4 (four) weeks on a date to be fixed by the Registry.
