03.12.2025

Mr. D. P. Borah, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the Department of Health and Family Welfare Department, Assam has submitted that the grievance raised in the petition may have been met during the pendency of the writ petition, since all the Districts now have the facility for E-Tendering for supplying of dietary articles to the different hospitals in the district of Assam.

Mr. D. P. Borah, learned Standing Counsel has agreed to supply a copy of the instruction received by him to the learned counsel for the petitioner, who shall have his instructions, if the grievance raised in the writ petition has been met during the pendency of the writ petition.

List this matter again in the week commencing from 19th of January, 2026, on a date to be fixed by the Registry for further order(s).

A copy of the instruction produced by Mr. D. P. Borah, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the Department of Health and Family Welfare Department, Assam, is kept on record and marked as Annexure-"X".
