None appears for the appellant when the matter was called up before this Court. Ms. R.B.Bora, learned counsel submits that she has been engaged in this case to represent the victim's mother i.e. the respondent no. 2 but the Registry has furnished her the wrong Paper Book. The matter be looked into by the Registry and if need be, the correct Paper Book be furnished to Ms. Bora.

Ms. A. Begum, learned APP, Assam, is present on behalf of the State.

We have noticed that the appellant's counsel i.e. the learned Legal Aid Counsel engaged in this case, was absent even on the previous occasion. It is informed at the Bar that the learned Legal Aid Counsel Ms. S.Sarma Hazarika is unable to attend the Court these days due to personal reasons.

In view of the above, Registry is directed to examine the matter and if necessary, replace the learned Legal Aid Counsel so as to expedite the hearing and disposal of this appeal.

Let this matter be listed again by reflecting the name of the newly engaged Legal Aid Counsel for the appellant, if any, in the cause list after furnishing the Paper Book to the newly engaged Legal Aid Counsel.
