Advocate for the Petitioner : MR. S BANIK

Advocate for the Respondent : SC, ELEM. EDU

BEFORE
HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE N. KOTISWAR SINGH

ORDER

Date : 22-01-2020

Heard Mr. S. Banik, learned counsel for the petitioners and Mr. D. Saikia, learned Senior Standing Counsel, Education Department assisted by Mr. J. Abedin, learned counsel.

2. It is the case of the petitioners that though initially the State authorities issued an advertisement for appointment of 7042 Nos. of Assistant Teachers in Elementary Schools vide advertisement dated 30.06.2017, the State authorities appointed more than 11,319 teachers. The petitioners contend that though they themselves had not taken part in the said recruitment process, the authorities could not have made appointment in excess to the advertised posts and those excess posts ought to have been advertised and, as such, filling of posts more than the advertised posts is against the law and, accordingly, have challenged the said recruitment process.

3. Further case of the petitioners is that the State authorities are continuing to make appointment on contractual basis as and when vacancies arise. In that event, the authorities may be directed to consider the case of the petitioners as well.

4. At this juncture, Mr. Saikia, learned Senior Standing Counsel has submitted that first of all as the petitioners themselves did not take part in the selection process, and as such they do not have locus standi to challenge even if assuming that there have been some irregularity in making the excess appointment.

5. It has been further submitted by Mr. Saikia, learned Senior Standing Counsel that, be that as it may, very soon respondent-authorities are going to initiate recruitment process for more than 15000 posts of Assistant Teacher of Elementary Schools and the petitioners may also apply for these posts and take part in the recruitment process and if found eligible, their case will be considered along with other eligible candidates and if any intervention is made at this stage without impleading those who have already been appointed, great prejudice will be caused to those who had already been appointed.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties, this Court is of the view that since the petitioners themselves did not take part in the recruitment process, perhaps, they may not have any right to challenge the recruitment already made though it may be mentioned that as and when additional vacancies arise, law mandates that such vacancies ought to be advertised so that fresh eligible candidates can compete for appointment to the said posts.

7. Be that as it may, since it has been submitted by learned Senior Standing Counsel that advertisement is going to be issued within a month or so, this Court is of the view that the present petition can be closed with liberty to the petitioners to apply for the said posts and if they are found to be eligible, they will be considered along with other eligible candidates in accordance with law for appointment.

8. It is also made clear that if the State Government resorts to any contractual appointment from the open market till regular appointments are made, the petitioners would be at liberty to apply to the authorities for being appointed on contractual basis.

9. With the above observations and directions, the writ petition stands closed.
