BEFORE
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE N. KOTISWAR SINGH ORDER

19-11-2019

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners. Also heard Mr. R. Mazumdar, learned Standing Counsel, Elementary Education Department and Mr. R. Borpujari, learned Standing Counsel, Finance Department.

2. At this juncture, this Court is primarily examining the issue of non-payment to 8470 numbers of teachers, who have been categorised by the Elementary Education Department as a distinct group as such teachers who were not recommended but are found to be working till date.
3. This Court had passed an order on 03.10.2019 directing the respondent authorities to ensure payment of at least one month's salary to these petitioners.
4. Today when these petitions were taken up, it has been submitted by Mr. R.D. Mazumdar that the necessary modalities have been worked out to ensure payment of one month's salary as directed by this Court, for which the Elementary Education Department would require at least 4 (four) weeks time to do so.
5. Learned counsel for the petitioners in some other writ petitions, namely, WP(C) No.1884/2017 and others have pointed out that a large number of teachers have been also left out. It has been submitted that the aforesaid 8470 number of teachers essentially pertain to Dhemaji & Lakhimpur districts and who were also appointed and not covered by the OBB Scheme for which advertisement was made in the year 1989 and given appointment pursuant to the said advertisement but their services were terminated in the year 1992, which termination order was challenged successfully before this Court and this Court had set aside the said termination order with direction to reinstate such petitioners on regular basis and also for payment of their salaries. It has been submitted that though their salaries have been paid up to 2003/2007, thereafter no salaries have been paid. Accordingly, it has been submitted that their cases though not covered under the aforesaid category of No.8470 teachers, this Court also may pass appropriate orders for payment of salaries.
6. Similarly, it has been submitted by learned Counsel for the petitioners in WP(C) No.5853/2015 and others that though the petitioners have been also appointed under similar fashion as the aforesaid category, in their cases no termination orders were issued nor served upon them and hence, these were not challenged before the Court and in fact, as no termination orders were issued, they are in continuous service but they have not been getting their salaries since 2007/2012 etc.
7. Accordingly, it has been submitted that a large numbers of teachers have escaped the attention of the authorities while categorizing them as mentioned in the letter dated 26.09.2019. The State respondents will accordingly verify the claim of such petitioners as to whether their cases are included under the aforesaid category No.3 consisting of 8470 number of teachers and if not, include their cases and the authorities shall release at least their one month's salary as directed by this Court on earlier occasion if they are found working till date.
8. As this exercise is going to be voluminous, the Commissioner & Secretary, Elementary Education Department is directed to ensure that the aforesaid details are worked out by assigning adequate number of officials of the Department to assist the learned Standing Counsel for the Department as this Court would not like to get this matter unduly delayed on account of lack of detail particulars, which are required to be ascertained before effective order is passed regarding payment of salaries.
9. Copy of this order be furnished to Mr. R. Mazumdar, learned Standing Counsel, Elementary Education Department and Mr. R. Borpurjari, learned Standing Counsel, Finance Department. The aforesaid exercise is necessary, so that no difficulty arise on the part of the Finance Department to release the same.

Mr. R. Mazumdar, learned Standing Counsel submits that he has received instructions to request this Court to take time at least 31.12.2019.

Accordingly, let the matter be listed on 28.01.2020 as part-heard.
