ORDER

25.06.2026

Heard Mr. A. Hussain, learned counsel for the petitioner. Also heard Mr. P. Borthakur, learned Addl. P.P. appearing for the State respondents.

The FIR was lodged on behalf of the ICICI Lombard General Insurance Company with the allegations that with regard to a claim case pertaining to an accident, it was found that same-day G.D.E, being G.D.E No. 334 dated 07.07.2025, the vehicle is indicated as AS-16A-4510, whereas, as per the FIR accused vehicle, as per the FIR, the offending vehicle is AS-19H-0349.

It is also stated that FIR was lodged after a delay of 42 days. It is alleged that fraudulent misrepresentation was done with regard to the accident by planting a false vehicle being AS-19-H-0349 insured by the ICICI Lombard to grab undue compensation for the insurance. On the basis of the complaint from the Insurance company, the instant case was registered.

The present petitioner is stated to be the I/O of the, of the case which was registered pertaining to the accident. The claims Tribunal disposed of the claims proceeding awarding a total compensation of Rs. 26,77,358/- along with 6% interest.

If the allegations made by the insurance company are true about impersonating the vehicle involved in the accident, it would amount to a claim fraud on the Tribunal also.
