5. Be that as it may, in view of the extent of relationship, which is expressed in the FIR, the Court is inclined to grant interim pre-arrest bail by providing that in the event of his arrest, the petitioner, namely, Jel Hoque @ Jinnat Ali in connection with the aforesaid case, he shall be released on interim bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.25,000/- with one suitable surety of like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer.

6. The interim pre-arrest bail is granted on the following conditions:

I. That the petitioner shall make himself available to the police or any other investigating agency or the Court in the present case as and when required.

II. That the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.
