BEFORE
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANJAN MONI KALITA
ORDER

15.07.2026

Heard Mr M Ahmed, learned counsel appearing for the accused applicant. Also heard Mr K K Parashar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State of Assam.

2. This is an application under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023, praying for granting anticipatory bail to the accused applicant, namely, Bimal Singh Narzary, in connection with Tamulpur PS Case No. 131/2026, under Sections 127(2)/64(1)/351(2) of the BNS, 2023.

3. An FIR was lodged by the informant on 02.07.2026 before the Officer-In-Charge of Kumarikata Police Station, alleging that after the death of the informant's parents, the wife of the accused applicant, who is the Principal of Kumarikata Junior college took her to her residence to support her studies; that during her stay she got acquainted with the husband of the Principal; that on 09.03.2026, she returned from the Principal's residence to her own residence; and that thereafter, she started staying in her own residence; that in the month of March, 2026, she started attending Dhamdhama College and while she was returning from the College, the accused applicant called her over the phone and asked her to come to his residence as certain works were required to be done; and that the accused applicant took her to his residence by a scooty and thereafter, forcibly injected her with certain liquid and thereafter, she got unconscious and the accused applicant tried to have sex with her, but in spite of several attempts he failed; that, thereafter, when she regained her consciousness, she and her brother were threatened with dire consequences by the accused applicant. The Police registered Tamulpur PS Case No. 131/2026 under the aforementioned Sections.

4. The learned counsel for the accused applicant submits that the whole story of allegation as narrated in the FIR has been framed and concocted by the informant in conspiracy with the wife of the accused applicant, the Principal, due to the fact that the Principal and the accused applicant are not having cordial relationship and a divorce case also been filed by the accused applicant. He submits that the accused applicant is a Government Servant and he will fully cooperate with the investigation and, therefore, prays for some interim protection at this stage.

5. Mr K K Parashar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposes any interim protection to the accused applicant at this stage

6. Taking into account the submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused applicant and on perusal of the materials before this Court, this Court is of the considered opinion that the accused applicant should be granted interim protection at this stage. Accordingly, it is directed that in the event of his arrest of the above named accused applicant by the arresting authority in connection with Tamulpur PS Case No. 131/2026, he shall be released on interim pre-arrest bail by the arresting authority, on furnishing a bail bond of Rs. 50,000/-, with one surety of like nature to the satisfaction of the arresting authority, subject to the condition that the accused applicant shall appear before the Investigating Officer within a period of 7 (seven) days from passing of this order and shall fully cooperate with the investigation. It is further directed that the accused applicant shall not try to get in touch with the informant and shall not try to influence any witness that may be connected with the instant case.

6. Call for the Case Diary.

7. Let the matter be fixed on 31st of July, 2026.
