ORDER

29.08.2025

Heard Mr. A. Ahmed, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr. R. J. Baruah, learned Addl. P.P., Assam for the State.

By this application filed under Section 482 of the BNSS, 2023 the petitioner, viz., Saddam Hussain @ Rinku has prayed for pre-arrest bail in connection with Nagaon P.S. Case No.616/2025 registered under Sections 87/85/64/351(2) of the BNS.

Call for the Case Diary in connection with Nagaon P.S. Case No.616/2025 along with the Case Diary connected with the G.D. Entry No.22 dated 14.06.2025 fixing 22.09.2025.

Heard on the prayer for interim relief.

The F.I.R. dated 02.08.2025 lodged by the victim reveals that the petitioner and she had a love relationship and that the petitioner threatened her and abused her and that if she desires to discontinue the relationship he threatens to kill her and that due to said threatening the victim went with the petitioner to Kolkata and that the marriage was solemnized. She also stated that she had no consent for the marriage but she was forced to do the same. It is also stated in the F.I.R. that after the said marriage when she was brought to the house of the petitioner she could come to know that the petitioner had already two wives and two children and that she was finally rescued by her family members.

Mr. A. Ahmed, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that before the instant F.I.R. the petitioner had also lodged another F.I.R. against her relatives i.e. brother, mother and other relatives saying that they had confined her with the intention to give her marriage to a boy against her will and that she was forcefully sent to the rehabilitation center. He also submits that the victim went to Kolkata on her own volition as there was a love relationship between them and she knew about the status of the petitioner.

Mr. R. J. Baruah, learned Addl. P.P., however, submits that the victim was forced into the marriage and was threatened by showing a pistol to her and was assaulted by the petitioner as reflected in the F.I.R.

In view of the submissions made and on perusal of the documents which reflects that the informant and the petitioner got married in Kolkata after she herself went with him and also due to the fact that the victim and the petitioner had a love relationship for long, this Court deems it fit to release the petitioner on interim pre-arrest bail on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.20,000/- with one local surety to the satisfaction of the arresting authority under the following conditions :-

- (1) That the petitioner shall appear before the Investigating Officer within 7 (seven) days from the date of this order and shall cooperate with the investigation.
- (2) That the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence and shall not influence the witnesses connected with the case.
- (3) That the petitioner shall not leave jurisdiction of the concerned Police Station without the leave of the Investigating Officer.

List the matter on 22.09.2025 for Case Diary.
