25.07.2025

Mr. K Kalita, learned counsel assisting Mr. PK Tiwari, learned Senior counsel submits that two affidavit-in-oppositions are being filed during the course of the day on behalf of the respondent Nos. 8 and 9. The petitioner-in-person is present. Mr. K P Pathak, learned Amicus has also submitted a list of relevant dates, relevant provision of Oil Employees Medical Attendance Rule, 2018 and the provisions of Central Services Medical Attendance Rules, 1944 in support of his projections. A copy of the same is circulated amongst the learned counsels and the petitioner-in-person.

The petitioner-in-person during course of hearing has raised an issue that though it is now an admitted position that he can have his treatment in India including the AIIMS, however, the respondent corporation is not acceding his request for his continuing treatment of the disease. However, Mr. Tiwari, learned Senior counsel asserts that he has instruction to submit that the authority will not object to such treatment in India.

Be that as it may, this court will consider this aspect of the matter on the next date fixed.
