ORDER

05.01.2026

1. Heard Mr. F. Khan, learned counsel for the petitioner. Also heard Mr. K. Baishya, learned Additional Public Prosecutor.
2. The petitioner, Rakesh Borbhuyan is seeking anticipatory bail under Section 482 BNSS, however, he does not have any details pertaining to any case registration against him.

3. It is submitted that he is a proprietor of one RB Enterprise which is registered Class-1(A) category under Assam Public Works (B) Department vide REG-Con PWDB/2024/9069072.
4. It is projected that some dispute regarding payment arose between the parties in connection with transaction and pursuant to which some complaint might have been filed against the petitioner leading to his apprehension.
5. Call for a report from the Hatigaon PS regarding filing of any complaint against the petitioner and registration of any case thereof including GD entry etc.
6. If the case has been registered and any such complaint then along with the report case diary may also be sent.
7. From the projected circumstances, it appears that there is an element of civil dispute as well though whether there is any element of criminal dimension in the projected dispute remains to be seen.
8. Therefore, till the returnable date no coercive measure with regard to this matter shall be taken against the petitioner.
9. List the matter 21.01.2026.
