Heard Mr. Limawapang, learned counsel for the petitioner.

The case in brief is that the petitioner submitted an Application dated 06.10.2022 to the Commissioner of Excise, Nagaland, Dimapur, for appointment to the post of Multi Tasking Staff under the Excise Department. A Screening Committee was constituted by the Department and the Committee, on 21.11.2022 recommended the petitioner for appointment to the post of Office Peon (MTS) at Dimapur. Thereafter, by the Letter dated 05.01.2023, the Government conveyed the approval for appointment of the petitioner to the post of Office Peon (MTS) at Dimapur and subsequently, by the Order dated 07.01.2023, issued by the Commissioner of Excise, Dimapur, the petitioner was appointed to the post of MTS in the Office of the Superintendent of Excise, Dimapur under the Excise Department. However, by the Letter dated 08.05.2023, issued by the Government in the Department of Excise & Prohibition, Nagaland, Kohima, the respondent No. 4 was appointed to the post against which the petitioner was appointed on compassionate ground and consequent thereto, the Commissioner of Excise, Nagaland, Dimapur, issued the Order dated 30.10.2023 immediately revoking the appointment of the petitioner as MTS under the Office of the Superintendent of Excise, Dimapur. Being aggrieved the petitioner is before this Court.
