Advocate for the Respondent : GA (AP),

BEFORE
HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE KALYAN RAI SURANA

ORDER

Date : 03.04.2025

Heard Mr. T. Pertin, learned counsel for the petitioners. Also heard Mr. Y. Riram, learned Government Advocate representing the State respondent.

2. By filing this writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners who were Multi-Tasking Staff/personnel under the establishment of the Arunachal Pradesh Police, have assailed the corrigendum dated 31.01.2022 and prayed for a direction upon the respondent authorities to provide the benefit of enhanced Casual Leave from 08(Eight) to 15(fifteen) days and for a direction upon the respondent authorities to frame the service rules and other service conditions of Multi-Tasking Staff as well as for other reliefs as prayed for.

The case of the petitioners is that although they are engaged as Multi-Tasking Staff, but they are made to work as regular police personnel and they are also engaged in law and order duty and accordingly, the learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners would be entitled to get the same service benefits to which regular police personnel are entitled to.

Accordingly, let notice be issued returnable in 4(four) weeks.

Mr. Y. Riram, learned Government Advocate accepts notice for the respondents. Requisite extra copies of the writ petition be served during the course of the day.

In the affidavit-in-opposition to be filed by the respondents, the respondent authorities shall also take a stand that under which particular rules or notification the Multi-Tasking Staff of Arunachal Pradesh Police are utilized for acting as uniformed police personnel and engaged in law and order and other police duties.

The learned Government Advocate shall transmit the downloaded copies of this order to the Director General of Police (respondent No. 3).

List the matter after 4(four) weeks.
