Date : 25/02/2026

ORAL ORDER

Mr. Rahul Patel, learned counsel appearing on behalf of Ms. Archana Amin, learned counsel for respondent No. 2 submits that pursuant to the order passed by the Central Government Industrial Tribunal, respondent No. 2 had filed the affidavit in reply wherein it has been stated that though they have called for relevant details from the petitioner with regard to the number of hours worked overtime by the employee as to whether the employee is having any documents to that effect, which is to be provided to the employer, however, till date it is not provided by the petitioner and therefore, the employer is unable to calculate the amount of overtime allowance.

In view of the above, Mr. Kazi, learned counsel is requested to furnish all the details of the overtime worked by the employee and after going through the same, the respondents may calculate the overtime allowance as directed by the CGIT. All the documents are to be supplied within four weeks. After the receipt of the documentary evidence, within four weeks the employer shall calculate and pay the amount of overtime allowance as directed by the CGIT. In the interest of justice, the matter is adjourned to 29.04.2026.
