Dear Sir,

*Subject: Return of Remittance Due to Incorrect
Account Details / Non-Compliance*

With reference to the foreign remittance initiated in your favour, we regret to inform you that the remittance has been returned by the foreign bank due to incorrect account details and/or compliance-related issues.

Our bank made three attempts to process the transaction; however, each attempt has been returned by the foreign bank since September 2025. In view of the repeated returns and to avoid further delay, we are returning the funds through Demand Draft No. 602248 dated 18.02.2026 for Rs. 2,92,80,655/-.

The remaining amount was Rs. 2,84,71,516/- for remittance to "LTA Shipping FZCO." But after unsuccessful transactions, due to rate changes, we have received an amount of Rs.2,92,80,655/-. This is for information and taking necessary action at your end.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of the Demand Draft.

Thanking you,

*Yours faithfully,
Chief Manager
State Bank of India*

4. In view of the aforesaid, the applicant shall undertake appropriate compliance so as to enable the State Bank of India, to remit the amount in the account of the applicant. The said exercise shall be completed within a period of 10 days from the date of the receipt of this order. On such compliance being undertaken, the Registry shall do the needful in accordance with law.

5. The present Misc. Civil Application is disposed of accordingly.
