ORAL ORDER

Heard, learned advocate for the applicant. The learned advocate for the applicant, at the outset, on instructions, would submit that the applicant is ready and willing to deposit the balance cheque amount, deducting an amount of Rs.2,25,000/- which is already deposited, however, he requests that some time may be given, and accordingly, he urges that in the interregnum, the applicant may be protected.

In view of above, list on 5th May 2026. Subject to applicant depositing the balance cheque amount, deducting Rs.2,25,000/- already deposited, within two months from today before the trial Court concerned, there shall be no coercive steps against the applicant, till then.

It is made clear that in case of non-deposit of the amount, as aforesaid, the trial Court concerned shall be at liberty to take appropriate steps against the applicant, in accordance with law.

Direct service is permitted.
