ORAL ORDER

At the outset, learned AGP Mr. Siddharth Desai appearing for the applicant submits that at the time of issuing notice, the then Coordinate Bench of this Court had granted ad-interim relief in favour of the applicant, and due to the stay granted by this Court, the authority concerned is not deciding the application preferred by the applicant pending before it. The order, granting stay, is as follows;

“Heard learned advocate Ms.Trusha K. Patel for the petitioner.

2. Notice returnable on 25.04.2018.

3. By way of interim relief, it is directed that there shall be no further action pursuant to order dated 26.04.2016 of the Collector, Rajkot as well as order dated 30.12.2017 of the revisional authority, being the impugned orders.”

A reading of the aforesaid order reveals that, nowhere in the said order, any direction is being issued to the concerned authority not to decide any application preferred by the applicant.

Hence, the concerned authority is hereby directed to take appropriate decision pursuant to the application made by the applicant during the pendency of the present proceedings, as early as possible, preferably within a period of three months, a report of which shall also be submitted before this Court.

Re-list this matter on 08.06.2026.
