ORAL ORDER

Heard Ms. Kirti Pathak, learned advocate for the applicant- Insurance Company and has apprised this Court about the averments made in the application. It is submitted that because of the administrative reasons the delay of 36 days has crept in preferring the appeal otherwise there was no mala fide intention to delay the proceedings. Noticing the aforesaid explanation offered, in light of the averments made in the application being deposed on oath, this Court is inclined to exercise its discretion. Hence, delay of 36 days caused in preferring the appeal is hereby condoned. The present Civil Application stands allowed.
