ORAL ORDER

1. The present application has been filed seeking condonation of delay of 88 days caused in filing the application i.e. F/ Miscellaneous Civil Application No.14156 of 2025 for restoration of F/Civil Application (for condonation of delay) No.32241 of 2024 in F / Second Appeal No.32239 of 2024, which has been dismissed for default vide order dated 13.12.2024 by the coordinate Bench of this Court though the Coordinate Bench had granted two weeks time to remove the office objections.

2. Learned advocate for the applicant has submitted that due to oversight, the applicant failed to provide certified copy of the judgment and decree and as such delay caused in filing the application for restoration of the civil application for condonation of delay caused in filing the main appeal.

3. Having heard learned advocate for the applicant and having gone through the contents of the application, since the satisfactory reasons are assigned in the application, more particularly in paras:3 to 6, the present application deserves to be allowed and it is accordingly allowed. Delay of 88 days is condoned and the present application is disposed of accordingly.
