CORAM: HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE A.J. SHASTRI

Date : 23/07/2019

ORAL ORDER

When the matter is taken up for hearing, learned advocate Mr.Nachiket A.Dave appearing for the applicant has submitted that the father of the plaintiff has expired way back in 1942, and out of the same, inheritance rights are yet to be created which is impermissible not only by virtue of provisions contained under the Succession Act, but at a relevant point of time, but hopelessly the time barred proceedings. In that view of the matter, Rule returnable on 29.08.2019.

In the meantime, there shall be ad-interim relief in terms of para 21(C) is granted.
