CORAM:HONOURABLE MRS. JUSTICE M. K. THAKKERDate : 07/05/2026*ORAL ORDER

1. Learned advocate Mr. Bahrani submits that the present applicants, who are six in number, are the in-laws of the complainant, including the father-in-law and brother-in-law (jeth). It is submitted that the marriage of the complainant and accused No.1, who is not before this Court, was solemnized on 10.02.2025 and, after the marriage, on 02.03.2025, the husband and wife went to Bali. On returning from Bali on 09.03.2025, the complainant directly went to her parental house and thereafter did not return. It is submitted that initially an application came to be filed before the Police Inspector, Gorva Police Station, against two accused, namely, the husband and Kishanbhai. It is submitted that thereafter a complaint came to be filed before the Mahila Police Station against three accused, i.e. the husband, sister-in-law and brother-in-law, wherein anticipatory bail was granted by this Court. Thereafter, another complaint came to be filed under the BNS and the Dowry Prohibition Act against five accused by adding the mother-in-law and father-in-law of the jeth, wherein this Court has protected the applicants by staying the investigation. It is submitted that the present applicant has also filed an application before the Police Inspector, Gorva Police Station, as the complainant and her family members are threatening the applicant and his family members. It is submitted that, though the complainant did not stay for a single day with the present applicants, the impugned complaint came to be filed with a view to exert pressure upon the husband.

2. Considering the submissions, let Notice be issued, making it returnable on 09.07.2026.
3. Learned APP Mr. Raval waives service of notice on behalf of the respondent-State.
4. Ad-interim relief in terms of paragraph 9(B) is granted.
