CORAM:HONOURABLE MRS. JUSTICE M. K. THAKKER

Date : 20/07/2026

ORAL ORDER

1. Learned advocate, Mr. Chandiramani, appearing for the applicants submitted that marriage of the son of applicant Nos. 3 and 4 was solemnized with the complainant, which was her second marriage. It was, further, submitted that the complainant has also filed another FIR, leveling similar kind of allegations, against her first husband as well as in-laws of the first marriage. It was submitted that, with similar kind of allegations, the impugned FIR is filed against the present applicants, who are in-laws.

1.1 As per the averments made in the impugned FIR, after her second marriage, the complainant and her husband stayed at Sabarkantha from 05.02.2022 to December, 2024, whereas, the present applicants were residing at Mundra.

Thereafter, the complainant and her husband shifted to Mundra, where, they stayed with the present applicants for about six to seven months and thereafter, the impugned FIR came to be filed. It was submitted that the allegations made in the impugned FIR are vague and general and only with a view to exert pressure on the husband, the present applicants are arraigned as accused in the impugned FIR.

2. Considering the submissions, Notice, returnable on 11th August, 2026. Learned APP waives service for the Respondent-State.
