ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice of Rule for and on behalf of the respondent – State.
2. The applicant, by way of this application filed under Section 483 of the BNSS, seeks regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11821033260195 of 2026 registered with Limdi Police Station, Dahod for the offences punishable under Section 107 of the BNS, 2023.
3. It is the submission of learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant is in judicial custody since 08.02.2026. He further submitted that the ingredients of abatement of suicide are not attracted at all. Thus, having regard to the evidence in support of the charge, it is a fit case to exercise the discretion in favour of the applicant.
4. Learned APP has opposed the bail application contending that, considering the conduct of the applicant and nature of accusation, the discretion may not be exercised in favour of the applicant.

5. Having heard learned advocates for the respective parties and upon perusal of material placed on record, it appears that the minor deceased, on account of her relation with the accused, ended her life by committing suicide on 27.01.2026. Admittedly, during the investigation, no any suicide note being found. On the basis of the oral discussion with her brother, the FIR came to be registered. After knowing the facts of the relations with the applicant, the brother did not have lodged the FIR. In such circumstances, without much discussions on merits of the case, I am inclined to enlarge the applicant on regular bail.
6. Hence, the bail application is allowed and the applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11821033260195 of 2026 registered with Limdi Police Station, Dahod, on executing a personal bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousands only), with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall:
