CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ILESH J. VORA*Date : 03/06/2026*ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of Rule on behalf of respondent State.
2. The applicant, by way of this application filed under Section 483 of the BNSS, seeks regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. 3. It is the submission of learned counsel for the applicant that he is suffering confinement since 29.03.2026. He further submitted that the applicant has not played any vital role in the alleged offence. Hence, further detention of the applicant is unwarranted.
4. Learned APP has opposed the bail application contending that, considering the conduct of the applicant and nature of accusation, the discretion may not be exercised in favour of the applicant.

5. Having heard the learned counsel for the respective parties and upon perusal of the material placed on record, it appears that the applicant herein found in the car which was piloting a truck as alleged in the case papers. However, the fact remains that nothing has been found or recovered from the applicant herein and he has no past antecedents of like nature. In such circumstances, I am inclined to exercise discretion in favour of the applicant, as keeping the applicant behind bars would not serve any useful purpose. Hence, the bail application is allowed.

In such circumstances, considering the role attributable to present applicant herein and evidence in support of charge, without commenting on merits of the matter, I deemed it fit to release the applicant on bail. Hence, present application is allowed.

6. Hence, the applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No. 11195019260384 of 2026 registered with Deesa Rural Police Station, Dist. Banaskantha, on executing a personal bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousands only), with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall:
