1.0. The mediation has not succeeded, however the difficulties expressed before us by the appellant in relation to her abode deserves urgent consideration. She needs to go to every siblings' home for the purpose of her residence every month. She would surely require a better environment for spending her remaining life with dignity and her self esteem is required to be thought of.

2.0. We would request the Full Time Secretary, District Legal Services Authority to receive her application and thereafter get in touch with the local panchayat, which also provides for a separate land, for those who are in need of the residence wherefrom fall within the criteria. Once that land under the "Avas Yojana" is allotted to her, the construction over the same can be directed.

3.0. The village form no. 7 and 8A produced today is indicative of the land in her name, which according to, Mr. Darji, learned advocate is situated far away where the human habitation is presently not there. Noticing the fact that she has soured relationship with the husband and her children, we would request learned advocate for both the sides to intervene and attempt normalization of the same.
