CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE A.Y. KOGJE*Date : 05/10/2021*ORAL ORDER

Considering the submission of learned advocate for the that the applicant was already informed about a resolution appointing him as a Vice Chairman in the credit society by accused No.1, the applicant has immediately refused and thereafter also since 2019, has addressed a notice through his advocate about is inability to participate in the business of the credit society. As the accused No.1 is still found absconding and the allegations with regards to the money trail leading to either the present applicant or to said Tushar Prajapati, it would be appropriate to protect the applicant from arrest till his statement is recorded to find out the money trail of investor's money. Stand over to 27.10.2021. The applicant may record his statement on 20.10.2021. Till then, the applicant may not be arrested.
