ORDER

After arguing for some time, when this Court is not inclined to entertain this application, learned advocate for the applicant, under the instructions, does not press this application. Hence, the present application stands disposed of as not pressed.

However, liberty is reserved in favour of the applicant to file a fresh application before the learned Sessions Court, in the event the trial has not substantially progressed.

Learned Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial since the present applicant is under trial prisoner (UTP).

It is hereby made clear that this Court has not examined the merits of the matter.
