CONCILIATION ORDER

1. With the consent of the parties, this matter was taken up for hearing in the Lok Adalat.

11/07/2026

2. The original complainant-Respondent No.2 – Jadav Jalabhai Ajmalbhai is present before us. He states that he has received the entire negotiated cheque consideration amount. The affidavit (at page No.35) of the respondent No.2 evidencing the foregoing is ordered to be taken on record. The learned advocate of Respondent No.2, Mr. Jajeeskhan A. Pathan has identified the actual complainant – Jadav Jalabhai Ajmalbhai who is present before us.

3. Affidavit on behalf of respondent No.2 is produced and is taken on record.

4. Having noted that the negotiated cheque consideration amount has been paid to the complainant, the sum deposited with the Trial Court to the tune of Rs.2,10,000/- is permitted to be withdrawn by the applicant, to which the learned advocate for the respondent no.2 expressly gave no objection.

5. Mr. Jajeeskhan A. Pathan, learned advocate for the respondent No.2, has also submitted before the Court that he is desirous of filing a Vakalatnama before the Registry. Accordingly, the Registry is requested to accept the same.

6. In view of the settlement arrived at between the parties and in view of the fact that the original complainant does not wish to continue with the proceedings, the impugned order and judgment of conviction dated 07.05.2026 passed in Criminal Case No.508 of 2025 by the learned Principal Civil Judge and JMFC Court at Mandal, District – Ahmedabad (Rural) are hereby quashed and set aside.

7. In view of the rationale laid down by the Apex Court in the case of Madhya Pradesh State Legal Services Authority vs. Prateek Jain and another, (2014) 10 SCC 690, the Court in its discretion is not ordering the deposit of any amount towards costs, as the matter has been settled in Lok Adalat.

8. In view of the aforesaid settlement between the parties, the present application is disposed of. In view of the disposal of the main Criminal Miscellaneous Application, all connected applications also stand disposed of. Rule/notice, if any, shall stand discharged.

9. Warrants, if any, issued by this Court or Trial Court in connection with this matter shall stand cancelled. The Registry is directed to transmit the record and proceedings to the concerned Court forthwith.

11/07/2026

10. The order passed in this application shall not be treated as a precedent in any other matter or case arising out of the same incident.
