COMMON ORAL ORDER

Mr. Viral Shah, learned advocate for the applicant submits that at the time of issuance of notice, a co-ordinate bench of this Court has granted permission to the applicant to file an appropriate application for seeking adjournment and essentially, the dispute is between the brother and sister. Otherside has no objection, if that permission is granted in favour of the applicant.

Considering the above-stated factual aspects, it is open for the applicant to prefer an appropriate application before the court concerned to seek adjournment.

The matter is posted on 21.02.2025.
