CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HASMUKH D. SUTHAR

Date : 31/07/2026

ORDER

- 1) RULE. Learned APP waives service of rule for the respondent-State.
- 2) The present application is filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short "BNSS") for regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R. No.11211045250332 of 2025 registered with Sayla Police Station, District - Surendranagar for the offences under Sections 103(1), 115(2), 61(2), 324(4), 189(2), 191(2), 191(3), 190, 352 and 351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita and under Section 135 of the GP Act.
- 3) Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the offence and now nothing is required to be recovered or discovered. Investigation is over and chargesheet has been filed. The applicant was not present at the spot of incident. As per the case of prosecution the applicant was holding knife and assaulted the deceased but no any stab injury was found in the post-mortem report of the deceased. Further, the complaint also reveals that the applicant was driving a Dumper bearing Reg. No.GJ-24-X-6609 in rash and negligent manner and tried to dash with Creta Car driven by the deceased but he failed to dash his dumper with Creta car and at the same time the co-accused Vijay along with other accused persons came in Bolero Car bearing Reg. No.GJ-13-AB-1711, and assaulted the deceased due to which the deceased succumbed to his injuries. The Dumper was found 1.5 km far from the place of incident and one Dumper was passed and the applicant came in Bolero and assaulted the deceased then question does not arise to involve the applicant. Even against one co-accused "A" Summary came to be filed which clearly shows frivolity of the FIR. He therefore submits that, considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

- 4) Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed the present application and requested to dismiss the present application for regular bail on the ground that the applicant is involved in the present offence and played an active role and named in the FIR. The applicant along with co-accused assaulted the deceased and in aid of Section 189(2), 191(2), 191(3) and 190 of the BNS the applicant is arraigned as an accused. Initially the applicant has tried to dash his Dumper with Creta Car but he failed and then the co-accused came in Bolero and assaulted the deceased and the deceased succumbed to the injuries. In total 39 injuries were found over the body of the deceased and the cause of death is very clear. There is every possibility that, if the applicant is released on bail, he will indulge in similar offences and try to tamper with the evidence. Therefore, present application does not deserve consideration.
- 5) While granting bail, the Court has to consider the involvement of the accused in the alleged offence, the jurisdiction to grant bail has to be exercised on the basis of the well settled principles having regard to the facts and circumstances of each case and the following factors are to be taken into consideration while considering an application for bail: (i) the nature of accusation and the severity of the punishment and the nature of the materials relied upon by the prosecution; (ii) reasonable apprehension of tampering with the witnesses and threat to the complainant or the witnesses; (iii) reasonable possibility of securing the presence of the accused at the time of trial or the likelihood of his abscondence; (iv) character behaviour and standing of the accused and the circumstances which are peculiar to the accused; (v) larger interest of the public or the State and similar other considerations are required to be considered.

- 6) I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the investigation papers. Following aspects have been considered:

- (1) As per the case of prosecution the applicant was driving a Dumper and tried to dash with the Creta Car of the deceased but failed to do so and immediately the co-accused came in Bolero armed with deadly weapons and assaulted the deceased – Ranchhodbhai @ Rasikbhai Dhandhal with indiscriminate blows. There is no material on record which suggest that the applicant assaulted the deceased. The learned APP failed to point out any eye-witness who has seen the applicant assaulting the deceased. The Investigating Officer has pointed out the statement of the accused allegedly confessional statement wherein it is alleged that the applicant was present and assaulted with knife. A bare perusal of the complaint reveals that first attempt to dash with Creta car had went in vain and the Dumper fled the scene and immediately the accused persons came in Bolero armed with deadly weapons. The said Dumper was found 1.5 km away from the place of incident. Except for the confessional statement of the applicant, the Investigating Officer has failed to point out any material collected during the investigation to show the involvement of the applicant.

- The co-accused is released on bail.;
- (2) Applicant is behind the bars since 14.06.2025;
 - (3) The applicant is having one past antecedent under Section 323 and 506(2) of the IPC, however, the accused is governed by presumption of innocence unless and until proved guilty;
 - (4) Investigation is over and charge-sheet is filed;
 - (5) There is nothing to be recovered or discovered from the applicant;
 - (6) Obviously commencement and conclusion of trial will take some time.
- 7) This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra vs. Central Bureau of Investigation reported in [2012]1 SCC 40 as well as in the case of Gudikanti Narasimhulu And Ors vs. Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh reported in (1978)1 SCC 240. Obviously, the conclusion of trial will take time and keeping the accused behind the bars is nothing but amounts to pre-trial conviction and therefore, considering the celebrated principle of bail jurisprudence is that "bail is a rule and jail is exception" as well as the concept of personal liberty guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, present application deserves consideration.
- 8) In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with FIR being C.R. No.11211045250332 of 2025 registered with Sayla Police Station, District - Surendranagar

- (h) shall not indulge in any illegal activity, failing which the learned trial Court shall issue warrant and cancel the bail of the applicant.

- 9) The authorities will release the applicant only if he is not required in connection with any other offence for the time being. If breach of any of the above conditions is committed, the Sessions Judge concerned will be free to issue warrant or take appropriate action in the matter.

- 10) Bail bond to be executed before the lower Court having jurisdiction to try the case. It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.
- 11) At the trial, the trial Court shall not be influenced by the observations of preliminary nature qua the evidence at this stage made by this Court while enlarging the applicant on bail.
