ORDER
(PER : HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE L. S. PIRZADA)

1. The present Appeal has been filed by the appellant, through jail, to release him on temporary bail on the ground of providing financial assistance to his family members.
2. The appellant is facing conviction for the offences punishable under Sections 489-A-B-C, 120(B), 34, 103 and 54 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) in connection with First Information Report registered with DCB Police Station, Surat as C.R. No.I-20 of 2019 (N.I.A.R.C. No.RC-25/2019/NIA/DLI).

3. The applicant had preferred an application before the learned Additional Principal Judge & Exclusive Designated Court under the Negotiable Instruments Act, Court No.2, City Sessions Court, Ahmedabad being NIACRMA-35/2026, which came to be rejected on 02.05.2026, against which the present Appeal has been preferred.
4. We have perused the records of the present Appeal preferred by the appellant, the above order dated 02.05.2026, heard learned advocate Mr. Ankit Shah for the respondent No.3 and learned Additional Public Prosecutor Mr. L.B. Dabhi.
5. The learned Designated Judge has specifically in Paragraph 4 of the order dated 02.05.2026 stated that a police verification was carried out which stated that the appellant's son is working as an Operator at Ahmedabad and is earning Rs.24,000/- per month. Further the report of the police also stated that the son is not suffering any mental illness and is not undergoing any medical treatment. It was also recorded by the learned Judge in the above order at Paragraph 8 that the trial of NIA Special Case No.1/2020 is going on and till date, 53 witnesses have been examined.

6. In view of the above findings of the learned Designated Judge and the police report, and as no genuine cause exists for grant of temporary bail, hence, the present appeal stands dismissed. Notice is discharged.
