CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE M. R. MENGDEY

Date : 16/07/2026

ORDER

1. By filing the present petition, the petitioner has challenged the order dated 06.06.2026 passed by learned Family Court, Surat, whereby the application submitted by the applicant for an adjournment came to be rejected.
2. Learned advocate Mr. Ronith Joy submits that he has received instruction to appear on behalf of the respondent and he may be permitted to file his Vakalatnama before the Registry.
The Registry to accept the vakalatanama.
3. Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submitted that the application at Exh-109 and 110 had been preferred by the respondent for cross-examination of the documents referred to herein. It was submitted that the petitioner was unable to effectively cross-examine the respondent on the said documents as the matter had not been adequately prepared. The petitioner, therefore, sought an adjournment.

4. It is further submitted that the petitioner is now ready and willing to proceed with the cross-examination of the respondent pending qua the documents produced at Exh-109 and 110 and undertakes to conclude the same on the next date of hearing i.e. 27.07.2026. He, therefore, submitted to allow the present petition.
5. Learned advocate appearing for the respondent opposed the present petition inter-alia contending that the petitioner is on regular bail and has sought an adjournment with an intention to delay the proceedings and since 2024, the case is lying on the same stage. He, therefore, submitted to dismiss the present petition.
6. Heard learned advocates for the respective parties. Having regard to the same, it appears that the matter is at the stage of cross-examination of the opponent with respect to documents produced at Exh-109 and 110, which was closed vide order dated 06.06.2026. In the interest of justice, right of the petitioner to cross-examine the opponent is reopened. The petitioner shall conclude the cross-examination of the opponent on the next date of hearing i.e. 27.07.2026 without fail and no request for an adjournment shall be entertained on that day.
7. With these observations, the present petition stands disposed of.
