CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE J. C. DOSHI

Date : 11/02/2026ORAL ORDER

It is indeed disquieting to note that certain respondents remain unserved despite the lapse of nearly two decades. The proceedings continue to stagnate at the rudimentary stage of service of notice, with no meaningful progress having been achieved.

This Court is at a loss to comprehend that, if the appellants are unable to effect service upon the respondents even after a period of twenty years, what impelled them to institute the present appeal in the first place. Such indolence in prosecuting the matter reflects a manifest lack of diligence and a casual approach to the judicial process, which cannot be countenanced.

Stand over to 18.02.2026.
