ORAL ORDER

It is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner that on the same subject as in the Revision Application, the State has preferred Criminal Appeal against acquittal being Criminal Appeal No. 890 of 2006 and urges to hear both the matters together. Under the circumstances, it is directed that the papers of this Revision Application shall be placed before Hon'ble the Acting Chief Justice for appropriate orders.

2. At the same time, a request is made by the respondent no.2 who is personally present in the Court for adjournment to enable him to seek legal aid. The request is accepted.
