3] Heard learned advocate Mr. Jay R. Ribadiya for the applicant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor Mr. Krutik Parikh appearing for the respondent – State.

4] Learned Advocate Mr. Jay R. Ribadiya submits that respondent No.2 had filed Criminal Case No. 23557 of 2021 before the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Surat and, at the end of the trial, the learned 18th Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Surat, vide order dated 12.07.2023 was pleased to convict the applicant under Section 138 of the N.I. Act, 1881 and sentence him to undergo simple imprisonment for one year and to pay Rs.9,50,000/- i.e. cheque amount, as compensation to the original complainant and in default simple imprisonment for two months. Being aggrieved by the said order of conviction, the applicant preferred Criminal Appeal No.532 of 2023 before the Sessions Court, Surat and, vide order dated 10.08.2026, the learned 13th

Additional Sessions Judge, Surat was pleased to confirm order passed by the learned 18th Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Surat, vide order dated 12.07.2023 passed in Criminal Case No. 23557 of 2021. Learned Advocate submits that, pursuant to the order passed by the learned Sessions Judge, Surat, the applicant has surrendered before the learned Trial Court and is presently in custody undergoing the sentence. Learned Advocate for the applicant submits that the applicant had already deposited 20% of the cheque amount before the learned Sessions Judge, Surat vide receipt No. 7370985 dated 05.09.2023 and is now ready and willing to deposit further 10% of the cheque amount before his release and remaining 10% of the cheque amount within two weeks after his release before the learned Court concerned. It is further submitted that the present Criminal Revision Application is not likely to be heard in the near future and that its final adjudication is likely to take considerable time. Therefore, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the applicant incarcerated during the pendency of the revision application. The applicant has a strong prima facie case on merits and, therefore, the execution, operation and implementation of the impugned judgment and order deserve to be suspended pending final disposal of the revision application and the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail on such terms and conditions as this Court may deem fit and proper. Accordingly, it is prayed that the relief sought in paragraph 6(B) and 6(BB) of the revision application be granted.

5] Learned Additional Public Prosecutor Mr. Krutik Parikh appearing for the respondent – State has submitted that necessary orders may be passed.

6] Considering the fact that the conviction is a fixed sentence and there is no likelihood of the revision application being heard in the near future and the applicant had already deposited 20% of the cheque amount before the learned Sessions Judge, Surat and now applicant is ready and willing to pay further further 10% of the cheque amount before his release and remaining 10% of the cheque amount within two weeks after his release before the learned Court concerned., the prayer qua Para – 6(B) and 6(BB) is allowed.
