=====CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NIRAL R. MEHTA*Date : 21/09/2026*ORAL ORDER

1. Heard Learned Advocate Mr.Vimal Purohit and Learned Advocate Mr.Devdip Brahmbhatt for the petitioners in the respective petition, learned Assistant Government Pleader Mr.Jay Trivedi for respondent - State and Learned Advocate Mr.S.P. Majmudar for the private respondents in both the petitions.

2. After arguing for some time, Learned Advocates for the respective parties have arrived at a broad consensus and requested this Court not to decide the present petitions on merits. However, further requested that if the impugned order to the extent directing status quo is modified and learned Gujarat Revenue Tribunal may be directed to decide the Revision Application in some time-bound schedule, ends of justice will be met.

3. The request appears to be reasonable. Accordingly, both the petitions are disposed of without expressing anything on merits and keeping all the rights and contentions of the parties open, by modifying the impugned order by deleting the direction to maintain status quo from the impugned order.

3.1 Needless to clarify that so far as direction of Deputy Collector is concerned, the same would remain stayed.

4. Gujarat Revenue Tribunal shall decide the Revision Application within a period of nine months from today. All the parties have assured that they will cooperate the Tribunal in the proceedings and would not take unnecessary adjournments.

Direct service is permitted.
