ORAL ORDER

Upon perusal of the FIR, it appears that the father of the present petitioner was having business terms with the first informant and had procured some diamonds for the purpose of business. However, subsequently due to Corona, the deceased father of the petitioner could not make any payment for the diamonds in question, and thereafter, the father of the petitioner had expired and the petitioner has been arraigned as an accused simply because he did not pick up the phone calls of the first informant nor did he repay the amount for the diamonds which were purchased by the his father.

Having regard to these aspects, issue Notice returnable on 06.03.2026. Learned APP waives service of Notice on behalf of respondent – State.
