ORAL ORDER

Considering the fact that the allegation against the applicant is of having raped the victim / prosecutrix, who was aged around 10 years and 7 months old, and whereas since it appears that the reason stated, solemnized the marriage of his son, does not appear to be so urgent or imminent, which would require the present applicant to be released on temporary bail, this Court is not inclined to consider this application at this stage. Hence, the present application stands rejected.
