CORAM:HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE P. M. RAVAL*Date : 05/02/2026*ORAL ORDER

1. By this application under section 5 of the Limitation Act, the applicant seeks condonation of delay of 141 days caused in filing the captioned revision application.

2. Rule. Learned advocate Ms. Tanaya Shah from Evolve Legal for the respondent Nos.2 and 3 and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent-State waive service for the respective parties.

3. Heard, the learned advocates for the respective parties. The learned advocate for the applicant, drawing attention of the Court to the grounds for delay narrated in the application memo, states that sufficient cause has been made out for condonation of delay and accordingly, it is urged that the delay that has caused in filing the revision application, may be condoned, to which, the learned advocate for the respondent Nos. 2 and 3 has vehemently opposed, stating that no sufficient cause has been shown to condone the delay and accordingly, it is requested to reject the application.

4. Having heard and considering the averments made in the memorandum of application, the Court is of the view that the delay that has occasioned in preferring the revision application has been sufficiently explained. The application, therefore, succeeds and is, accordingly, allowed. The delay caused in filing the revision application is hereby condoned. Rule is made absolute accordingly.
