ORDER:

This Writ Petition is filed with the following relief:

"...to issue any appropriate Writ, Order or direction more in the nature of Writ of mandamus directing the Respondents 3 to 5 not to interfere with the possession and enjoyment of the petitioner over the property bearing H.No. 13-3-395/A/3, situated Imampura, jaguda, Hyderabad including the construction/repairing activity undertaken by him at the instance of Respondents 6 to 8 by duly declaring the action of the Respondents 3 to 5 in interfering with the possession and enjoyment of the petitioner over the property bearing H.No. 13-3-395/A/3, situated Imampura, Jaguda, Hyderabad including the construction/repairing activity undertaken by him in respect of the said house at the instance of Respondents 6 to 8 as illegal, arbitrary and contrary to the well settled principles of law and pass....."

2. Heard Mr.Sridhar Lonkala, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.D.Pradeep, learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home appearing for respondent Nos.1 to 5.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that respondent Nos. 3 to 5 have been interfering with the petitioner's possession and enjoyment of his house property. Aggrieved thereby, the present writ petition has been filed seeking appropriate directions from this Court.

4. Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home submitted that the allegations made against the respondent police authorities are unfounded. He stated that there was no occasion for the police to interfere with the possession of the petitioner's property or to involve themselves in any civil dispute relating to ownership or possession. He further asserted that the respondent police authorities have been conducting themselves strictly within the bounds of law and, therefore, prayed for dismissal of the writ petition.

5. I have perused the material placed on record.

6. Having considered the assertions made by the petitioner, the averments in the affidavit, and the stand taken by the respondent police authorities, and keeping in view the limited role of the police in matters of a purely civil nature, this Court is of the opinion that appropriate directions are warranted to prevent unwarranted interference.

7. Accordingly, respondent Nos.3 to 5 are directed to refrain from interfering with the possession and enjoyment of the petitioner's house property, except in strict accordance with law and only by following due process as contemplated under law.

8. With this direction, this writ petition is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Miscellaneous Petitions, pending if any, shall stand closed.
