The Court made the following: ORDER

2025:TSHC:57492

THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE N.TUKARAMJI

WRIT PETITION No. 5975 OF 2018

ORDER:

This Writ Petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking the following relief:

"...to issue a proper writ order or orders, particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus declaring the action of the Respondent No. 5 in not registering the Crimes (FIRs) in spite of receiving the complaints from the petitioner on 19.12.2017, 29.12.2017, 14.01.2018, 15.01.2018 and 01.02.2018 is arbitrary, unjust and in violation of mandatory provisions under the Criminal Procedure Code and in violation of rights guaranteed under the Constitution of India and also in violation of provisions under Standing Orders of the Police and direct the respondents to register the crimes in respect of the complaints dated 19.12.2017, 29.12.2017, 14.01.2018, 15.01.2018 and 01.02.2018 made by the petitioner and to pass any other order or orders..."

2. None appeared on behalf of the petitioner.
3. Mr. D. Pradeep, learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home, appearing on behalf of the respondents, submits that, based on the report received, a preliminary enquiry was conducted, pursuant to which a case was registered as Crime No. 137 of 2018 for the offences punishable under Sections 498-A, 323, and 506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860. Accordingly, he contends that the grievance raised by the petitioner does not survive for consideration.

4. I have perused the material available on record.
5. Having regard to the petitioner's contention that the representations submitted by her regarding registration of a crime were not considered by the Police authorities, and in view of the submission made by the learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home indicating that a crime has in fact been registered after due preliminary enquiry, it is evident that the grievance of the petitioner has been effectively addressed by the respondents/Police authorities. In such circumstances, nothing further survives for adjudication in this writ petition.
6. Accordingly, this Writ Petition is dismissed as infructuous. There shall be no order as to costs.

Pending miscellaneous applications, if any, shall stand closed.
