The court while directing issue of notice to the Respondents herein to show cause as to why this application should not be complied with, made the following order.(The receipt of this order will be deemed to be the receipt of notice in the case).

ORDER:

This Application has been filed by Mr.Jetti Ramesh, the appellant, seeking an interim bail for a period of three weeks on the ground that his mother, Smt.Jetti Kanakamma, has expired on 24-12-2018.

The learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the only son in the family. Therefore, he is required to perform the last rites and death ceremony for the departed soul of his mother. He further pleads that during the petitioner's incarceration, his mother has looked after his property. But with her demise, the petitioner needs to take care of his properties, before he is brought back to the jail. Therefore, he seeks an interim bail for a total period of three weeks for the petitioner.

On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor submits that already eight days have gone by, since the petitioner's mother had expired. According to the card published by the petitioner's family, the death ceremony for the departed soul would be held on 07-01-2019. The learned Public Prosecutor also submits that the local Police was directed to enquire whether the petitioner's mother has actually expired or not. He has been telephonically informed by the concerned Police Station that Smt.Jetti Kanakamma has expired on 24-12-2018.

Considering the fact that, the ceremony of the departed soul is scheduled to be held on 07-01-2019, as evident from the card published by the petitioner's family, considering the fact that the petitioner's mother had looked after his properties for some time, considering the fact that with her demise, the petitioner needs to take care of his properties, this Court grants an interim bail to the petitioner between 06-01-2019 to 15-01-2019, provided, he submits two sureties each for a likesum of Rs.30,000/- to the satisfaction of the Committal Court. In case, the sureties are submitted, the petitioner shall be set at liberty on 06-01-2019. The petitioner is directed to surrender before the Superintendent, Central Jail, Warangal, on or before 5.00 p.m., on 15-01-2019. He is directed to maintain peace and tranquility during this period.
