Petition under Section 151 CPC praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the criminal petition, the High Court may be pleased to stay all the proceedings in the case including the appearance of the Petitioner/Accused in C.C. No. 2447/2025, on the files of the IV Additional Magistrate of First Class, Medchal-Malkajgiri District, Uppal at L.B. The Court made the following:

RDER

Notice before admission.

Learned Additional Public Prosecutor takes notice on behalf of respondent No.1.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to take out personal notice to respondent No.2 by way of Speed Post with Acknowledgment Due and file proof of service.

Mr. Rajesh Maddy, learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner has not committed any offence and has been falsely implicated in the present case. The petitioner granted the loan after following due procedure. There is no conspiracy between the petitioner and the other accused. Especially, there is no dishonest intention on the part of the petitioner in granting the said loan. Thus, the ingredients of the offence under Section 420 read with Section 149 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 are not attracted against the petitioner. Hence, the continuation of the proceedings against the petitioner is a clear abuse of the process of law.

Taking into consideration the above submissions, this Court is of the prima facie view that there is force in the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, and a detailed examination is required.

Post on 06.08.2026.

Till such time, there shall be an interim stay of all further proceedings against the petitioner/accused No.6 in C.C.No.2447 of 2025 on the file of the IV Additional Magistrate of First Class, Medchal-Malkajgiri District, Uppal at L.B. Nagar.

In default of filing proof of service by the next date of hearing, the interim stay granted shall stand vacated.
